Dear Brother,

I called at your house and finding you was out. I returned here to inform you that Dundas went in to the King and that Mr. Phipps is objecting to the proposition: I am therefore to remain as I am: I must confess I rather expected the King's refusal: but still I thought the offer a happy one in the present moment. I am happy to meet with your approbation for Palmerston and must consider you as my best friend: and in

-did it in my regard for you only that has this week should my Parliamentary conduct: advise for the present till we meet which will be either Fri-day or Tuesday next and ever believe me,

Dear Brother,

Yours affectionately

J. S. Millar
