H. G. M. Duke
of Clarence

Dear Brother,

Volunteering and my business have prevented me till now from paying the attention I ought to give Jack Rodney's letter of 9th August which I enclose to you as it speaks too best for itself. I am the as doubt you will do all you can for him.

This morning I received Lord Pitt's letter to Her communicating the King's acceptance of The Regal of Fullborne Regiment and we shall be -in immediately to enrol the men: the Comp is to consist of ten Companies of fifty each one Proprietor of the Company to be commanded by Colonel a Lieutenant, Colonel the Major, seven Captains seven Lieutenants ten Ensigns and one Cornet.

I wish you would order the Colours according to the Regulation and you will not I am sure forget your promise to present them.
Let me know when you will be in town that I may see you and our beloved one, Yours most affectionately
P. Hill
