camp Dover Heights

July 21st 1900.

Sir,

Your Royal Highness's great condescension & kindness to me will I hope induce you to pardon this intrusion.

Some sharp fits of the gout have made one of my legs very unequal to long field days on foot; there is little likelihood of my vacancy among the field officers of my regt & I have therefore turned my thoughts towards the local militia

Your Royal Highness did me the honor to tell me that you had not determined who should be named to the field officers commission: under Your Royal Highness, should that still be the case ~~excuse me~~ I beg leave to offer myself to

Your Royal Highness notice - my only

Ld Yarmouth

[Enclosure]

Object in being in the Militia has always been a sense of the duty of every gentleman to have a post in these times, that object will be equally attained & more gratefully to my feelings should that post be one under your Royal Highness.

I have the honor to be

Sir

with great respect your Royal Highness

most faithful humble servant
