To
Duke of Clarence

44984

Bushy House.
Wednesday
Eight.

Dear Sir,

My hand will I am afraid shortly be disagreeable to you: but I really as you know only apply to my brother under very particular circumstances: the present is one of this kind and whether the Prince can give the widow of my old friend Poldiby a pension or cannot show him this letter and put him in mind of the services we formerly had at Windsor with her husband and particularly with one of the coachman's daughters: by the name of Miss Poldi-Poldi is entitled to a pension and I show the poor woman to be distressed.

Ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours sincerely
