Charles Stuart
May 17. 1717.

Dear Sir,

It will be requisite for the Admiralty to move to have a letter from one of the Secretaries of State communicating the King's pleasure respecting the coming over to this country of the Queen Dowager of Wintemburg.
The necessary application to the Lord Chamberlain and to the Lord Steward of the Household cannot otherwise be made by the Admiralty.
I am therefore I shall trouble the Secretaries of State and on the ensuing day I mean to take the King's pleasure respecting the Royal Assize of the as I understood Mr. Thayer is anxious for the arrival of his sister in this country not later than the first of June. I am anxious for an early letter from the Secretary of the Board remain,

Dear Sir,
Yours sincerely
