I hope that My beloved Edw does not take me for Boone or for an Wingate full creature but the letter that I wrote on Tuesday I ought to send till this morning - I therefore tell you the Round & plain truth - You know My love here dearly I love you - and that you would not, nor could not visit our feelings for each other you are certain then that no one wishes you any earthly blessing more sincerely than me and that nothing but Death can ever change the sentiments of My dear Edw Brother

Your most truly Aff
