My Dear Mr. Booth

I am <sup>much</sup> surprised by Lord Nelson's letter this morning to send his warm Duty to you, and to express how much he is penetrated with the kind manner in which you have written to him that your letter is invaluable, and that he hopes you will be graciously pleased to accept of his grateful thanks and of the assurance of his respect and attachment for yourself which is constantly near with his life. — I am happy to add that thank you

It pleases in quite well and in excellent spirits It gives me great pleasure to hear that you are well and enjoy your sailing so much. I hope also that you feel free from every complaint. My wife was on Friday - I took her to Brighton and from some any place was inspired in my life - my wife talks and my cheerful - God bless you my dear Duties Ever your most truly Affectionate

Augustus
