Mr Drake Sen^r is often with Government than against; in Ministerial Questions he may be against - but in great Constitutional Points he will always be with, if the Questions are to affect the Gov^t or Constitution - Mr Drake Jun^r is not of such sound Principles.

Sir John Griffin Griffin.
B. Sethiullier.

1. The same most probably - I
1. have put both these Gentlemen down as coming in again & against but I am told that Sir John Griffin does not stand well there, & is open to attack by a proper Man - Inquiries are making 2

Anglesey.

Lord Bulkeley.

1. The same, unless Sir N. Bayley, or Sir John Stanley could be prevailed on to stand; but even then Doubtful - and should be considered against: 1

Appleby.

P. Honeywood
Geo. Johnstone.

1. Same - or two others both against
1. One & One, by L. Thanes & S. J. J.
Loother this time - but hereafter
Lord Thanes's Borough - Mr Robinson having sold all his Property there to Lord Thanes. 2

Arundel.

Tho. Brand
G. S. Newenham.

1. With Attention Friends may be got in here: unless Lord Surrey sh.
be active, conform, & purchase - in that Case even, perhaps Onopien may be got in, however as most cautious only put both Doubtful - as I am not clear that Lord Onlos Opinion can be depended upon - that Mr thro' S. John Shelley, w.
L. Surrey has divided the Borough
1. & 1. In that Case Friends at least 2

Ashburton.

C. Boone.
Robt. Palk.

1. The same again most likely -
1. but it is s^d that some dissatis faction has arose as to Dr. Orford's recommend.
altho' the Electors are inclined to receiv a friend from Gov^r. - acc^t of this are daily expected 1

with Lord Camden's Son M^r Pratt.

1. Same again - or a Friend of L^d Bulkeley . . . 1

Bedfordshire

Lord upper Gosoy . . .
Lord Ongley . . . 1

1. Same again: - I put Lord Ongley down for, because he generally is so. except in some of the Questions of Economy & Reform: & I think He may be mostly depended upon: if attended to & humour'd a little for I have generally on trial found him practicable . . . 1 . . . 1

Bedford

Sir W. Wake . . .
Sam Whitbread . . . 1

1. Same again - M^r Whitbread is a very doubtful uncertain man for either Side - but if either Way I think may be reckon'd more hopeful to go in general with Gov^t: tho' certain in popular Questions. a proposition has been rec^d: lately respecting this:
to which Attention is paying . . . 1. 1.

Paul Methuen
Lord Cranburn 1.

1. It is doubtful whether either of these Gentlemen may come in again. Mr Methuen has of late always been against. But the Borough is Lord Cylesbury's. It is most probable the Gent^m who will come in will be both Friends. Lord Cranburn will most likely be a Peer, very soon and. 2. therefore desires to have only a temporary seat - perhaps Lord Courtown may be brought in -

Beeralston.

S^r J. H. Drake 1.
Hon^{ble} G. Hobart 1.

Probably neither of these Gent^m for this place, but two Friends will be brought in of which I have rec^d the best Assurances from the Duke of Northumberland, who has purchased this Borough - 2.

Berkshire.

John Clives
W. A. Hartley

1. These two Gent^m will probably come in again unless something particular happens. Mr Clives tho' not against yet mostly is so. An Opposition by a Friend of Gov^t has been talked of, but does not seem in any degree of Forwardness. 2.

Berwick.

Jac. Wilkinson
Hon^{ble} M^r Vaughan 1.

1. It is expected that Gen Vaughan will come in again or a person a friend to Government to hold the seat in his absence. And it is hoped that M^r Wilkinson will be thrown out & Sir John Murrey Delaval a good friend be brought in. However as it is contest and a poll to be taken it is at present put doubtful. Lord Lisburne has now resolved to offer Gen Vaughan again. 1. 1.

Beverly.

Sir Jas. Pennymann
G. F. Tuffnell

1. It is doubtful whether the same Gent^m will come in again. but it is equally doubtful whether a Friend may be got in for this Place: M^r S. C. Thompson & be prevailed on to stand, he w^d it is hoped carry it. He sh^d be talk'd to on it. Col^l Masters of the East York Reg^t w^d also make a good Candidate. But however both as against for the present. 2.

Under circumstances & with attention both these seats may probably be got one at least seems likely. However for the present only put these doubtful - It is since the above remark now settled, that Sir Rob Clayton comes in again. & a friend of Government - probably Mr. Hennick, new a friend of stamps - . . . 2.

F. Standert . . . 1

Bodmyn.

Geo. Hunt . . . 1

There will be a Contest here - It is Mr Hunt will be thrown out & Mr
Masterman comes in; but I fear La Roche may fall - If so it will remain as before - 1 & 1 - which supposes at present - but if not, we shall have two friends - . . . 1.

Willm Egerton . . . 1

Since the above, accounts have been recd.
as if it was doubtful, whether Mr. Sibthorpe would stand again for this Place. & Mr Bertie has the strong personal Interest this Place applies to, to converse on this Business since this Dec. 17th he has received but Mr Paulett thinks that he will carry it with Assistance; it is however doubtful, & considering Mr Paulett's Conduct, being against us, even in some of the most pointed Questions against Gov: I may be most prudent to set this down against.

Calne.

John Dunning 2
Is. Barré

1. This Borough stands in rather an extraordinary situation for to have it against Gov^r. It consists of but a small number of voters & the management of the whole is in the Power of Mr Bull who is a Comm^r. of Taxes & a Comm^r. of Appeals, in the House & yet is connected ag^t. Gov^r. with L^d. Shelburne. He is so closely so, that it is a difficult matter to know how to talk to him - but if it is thought right to try him somehow it must be done very cautiously & only at the last moment, for whenever this is done it will sound the Alarm.

Cambridgeshire.

Sir J. H. Cotton 1.
Sir Sampson Gideon 1.

There is a violent Contest here. It is thought that Mr York & Sir Samp^r. Gideon will come in & therefore it is ventured to put these Members down at least hopeful, as it is not thought that Mr York will not come in inimical to Gov^r. & Sir Sampson is a most firm Friend -

Cambridge University.

Rich Croftes 1.
Sir Mansfield 1.

1. There will be a strong Contest here: L^d. Custon, Mr Pitt, Mr J. Townshend, Lord Hyde, Mr Croftes, & Mr Mansfield stand all speak with Confidence but it is generally believed that Mr Mansfield will succeed - Lord Hyde's success is still very doubtful; therefore best to set them down one Pro; one Con: as whichever of the other candidates succeed: such one will most probably be against; 1 1.
Lord Custon will not be of age until after Aug^r. Lord Hyde's standing will be of use to Mansfield, & will interfere much with Mr Townshend.

But however it is apprehended that we shall have two Friends brought

Gov^r 2.

Canterbury.

Rich: Milles . . .
Lord Newhaven . . .

1
1

Mr. Milles declines Lord Newhaven stands & expects to come in again he is sometimes with - others against - but he professes great Friendship - Mr. Robinson the Recorder of Canterbury also stands & Mr. Honeywood offered, but may now as he has been nominated for Kent, perhaps withdraw - If Mr. Robinson succeeds he will be an untried & uncertain Man, & therefore it seems most proper to put these Gent^{rs}

M^r. Adams will not come in here again: two or three candidates are talked on to start for this Place: Sir Cornwallis Maude - M^r. Morgan - and M^r. Geo. Phillips - S^r. Maude it is thought is most likely to succeed & may not be unfavorable, but being untried it is put down doubtful. 1

Carlisle

Ant. Stour 1
Walter Spencer Stanhope

It is reported that Lord Surrey means to stand for this place, in opposition to M^r. Stour - that the Agreement between Lord Carlisle & M^r. Stour is not to continue, but that the Duke of Portland, Lord Surrey & M^r. Stour are all to join against Lord Carlisle's Support. If so, M^r. Stour's Success will be very dubious, & this is so put. 1 1

Carnarvonshire

1 1 Tho. Asheton Smith

M^r. Smith it is apprehended will not stand again - The Candidates are Lord Newborough & M^r. Parry - Lord Newborough ought to have the best Interest, but he is personally disliked for some slights to the Gent^l & therefore altho he thinks he shall succeed yet it is very doubtful. M^r. Parry is connected with M^r. Beard the Welch Judge, & apprehended to be well inclined, & therefore this place is canvassed & hopeful whoever succeeds. 1

Carnarvon Town

Glynn Wynn

The same again - & he is much better liked in the County than his elder Brother L^d. Newborough. 1

Rob^t. Mackreth 1

object on account of his absence as he can't while absent support

He has often gone with Gov^t late Questions been remarkably firm - 30 July - It is apprehended he is now so fixed as that a friend will be brought in most probably the same Mr Parker

After the late severe Brush it is not likely that any one will be found to fight this County - The Circumstances however have varied much since that Contest. The reconciliation of the Duke of Gloucester to the King is one material Alteration: many other Interests of the good Friends of Governmt. which were engaged stood neuter; or which were not active last time might be secured & act with Governmt. in a Plan well formed, & above all better Management for that was wretchedly bad the last time. It is tho' a Consideration that men are now heated, have taken Decided Parts & in these Cases often ad here to them until they get cooled even against the correction of their own Minds - This seems to deserve Deliberation: S^r H. P. S. John is often with us, but in the late Questions was against or shirked. He is therefore only put down Hopeful. 1 1

A Contest is much talked of at this Place - The Publicans give hopes to all that come, in expectation of getting some one to offer & to have their Harvest; But it is hoped that Mr. Dodd is safe against all attack & as to Mr. Annesley it is immaterial no change can be worse. Mr. Temple Luttrell, was thought of & tried a little but the conversation seems to have dropt of his standing others have in the like manner been proposed & probably some one will be got to step forward, to make a third man in order to create Expenses 1 1 will not stand again here, at least if he comes again into Parliament but Mr. Cator stands with another is sure of carrying the Borough, Mr. Cator however is certain therefore canvassed One for One

Sir Geo. Saville
C^o Lascelles 1

1 } Mr Lascelles is threatened with an Opposⁿ

Opposition has been imputed to be with a view to his Election not from principle & by his management he has not pleased either side - the Patriots despise him, the friends of Government in Yorkshire are disgusted with him for his trimming However no One has yet publicly stood forth, and an Opposition for the County of York is so very serious a matter in point of Expence for the person attacking as well as the person attacked, & C^o would lose 1 } to Sir Geo. Saville the Person not
