

Geo III to Lord Grenville

Answer by the King to a letter from Lord Grenville, pressing him to consent to yr. Catholic Claims. 1807.

My Lord,

I am so indifferent to the Affairs of this world, that I would cheerfully descent from my Palace, to spend yr. miserable Remainder of my days in a Cottage, if I were call'd up on to do so; I should not fear to lay my head upon yr. Block, if it were necessary for yr. welfare of my people; but I have not yr. Courage to charge my Conscience with the Crime of Perjury.
