

Jewels belonging to the King set apart to be sent to the Bank of England, when the Inventories of Her late Majesty's were taken

7th January 1819

A Brilliant Necklace of 26 Collets

A Crook to Do. of 6 Brilliants

A Pair of large three drop Brilliant Earrings

2 Brilliant Bows

A Pair of very spread Brilliant Drop Earrings set with Brilliants.

A single stone Brilliant Ring

An open pattern Brilliant Brooch with solid drop

A small round Brilliant Clasp of 6 Brilliantes, - the Center Stone, not there.

2 single Brilliant Drops.

The above Articles contained in a Red Case.

A superb Brilliant Stomacher of three Brilliant Pieces.

A Do. Brilliant Nosegay

A small Brilliant Crown

A row of 41 very large Pearls.

A Pair of Pearl drop Earrings in Brilliant frames.

A very large Pearl & Brilliant Row

2 — do — smaller — do — do

Very large Brilliants - 104

1 Large Oblong shape

2 Drops, - fine - a match

1 Pointed Drop.

1 Short Drop

1 Large Oval

1 — do — round.

7 - Presents from the Nabob of Arcot reserved for decision.

Whether they be the Property of the King and to be set aside as such, or to be sold as the late Queen's Property for the Benefit of the Princesses.

(signed) H. Taylor

(signed) John Bence

THE BIRMINGHAM MIDDLES
1848

Acc 1617 Ad 2/85

books belonging to Hunting, set afloat
the coast of the Banks of England, when the remains of the late Magistry were taken per January 1894.

RA 1617 ii