

S. James's,
 4
 June 25: 1820.

Dear Daniell,
 The yours is dated 23 I did not receive it till late last night and was then gone now only saw it: as yet the attack consists merely in great languor and bilious symp-toms and I hope will not increase: I am convinced the new book at Bessy must you well render your attentive eye: it is a pity but the sailing of the Librey cannot for the reasons you give be touched:
 I wish you to inform someone when he is to read his memorandum to Bessy: I altogether approve of Hadley's arrangement for painting the Memoyes Down: Lyell means discontinue the Antiquar-ian Review: we shall see the pot-tell there the Upper Lodge: but do not send the plan to George if you had better write to him: he certainly comes home this season: I suppose altogether of your sentiments and intentions respecting the Philistia and we must be to see you either Wednesday or Thursday in London to talk over matters generally: bring up the different monthly accounts:

 advice and we will be true,

Yours sincerely

J. O.
 William

to George fairly her of the
Monday
these years
months:

[Faint, illegible handwriting]