

[To Daniell, Duke of Clarence's Agent at Bury Stone].

J. James.

Jan^{ry} 15: 1821.

Dear Sir,

The papers seem to have de-termined we are not to meet in a hurry: next -Saturday I cannot be with you but hope and trust nothing will prevent my going down to Bury on the Twenty seventh: I am turning my mind to the path road & intend to go for fear
-missing the house: I am better and trust I am getting well: the Dutch paper in your hand
-is most prosperous: advice and consolation
-me.

Yours sincerely
J. James
