GEO. ADD. 4 (127)

The Pavilion Saturday.

My dear Mr. G.

I thank you
sincerely for your kind letter which gave me great satisfaction, for I was very anxious to hear of your
and little girl's health.
I hope the journey to Lewes. I am happy to know that you think her so much better & that she will go on firmly & that you

will no more have any cause of anxiety about her health. I also wish that Dr. Charlotte will soon present you with another grand child &
 that she will be quite safe during with. Give me my best wishes.
 We are going on as usual here. The King has had a slight cold which will keep him out for a few days, but

Thank God he is better again & the hopes are well. I'll I like the little mark in also better, & we have had several of Dr.
 Brodie's Babs.
 I shall have great pleasure to see you
 and meet in London.
 I say for the change of his, for. I have been very ill &
 exhausted this last week & the work has been consequently more

troublesome. -

The King sends you his kind regards & I beg to offer mine to W. M. & to give my love to your daughter
including the two little girls.

God bless you all.

Your devotedly

your

most aff.

William
