Quilim Feb. 20th

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th inst. in regard to the death of Mr. Greenwood's wife. The same has been forwarded to the proper authorities.

I thousand thanks to my dear Lady Elz for your very kind inquiries after us contained in your letter of the 17th - Great God we did not suffer from the shock the melancholy event of Mr. Greenwood's sudden death had caused and are quite well. The sickness is better than it had been for years, I was deeply affected by this sad event as we all were I trust it will have made a lasting impression upon us all. Mr. Guinness was such an excellent gentleman that his death may be considered as a fine example of the death of the righteous far without suffering he breathed his last moments His satisfaction to us to know that he felt perfectly happy to the last hour of his life & that the King would show him his esteem & high regard to the end of his well spent generous life & no writings to make him happy by inviting him to our house, where he seemed to be in perfect health & excellent spirits.

 Mrs. H. Taylor suffered very much from the shock he received, for it was in his arms that poor M. G. fell & he was present when he expired a few minutes afterwards. The has been in well exercise I am ready about him. He took an old school said in the year old

Man. —
I am happy by the good account you give of your Daughter & grand child I hope they will be both continue to you in well.

With my best respects to Dr.
Gly & by you to believe you will enjoy a long

Gly your most aff.
Friend
