

London
Nov. 10th 1790

My dear Sir

It gives me the greatest possible pleasure to tell you that my father is perfectly well and in good spirits. I am sorry Wayne did not get his promotion previous to my father leaving the Colonies My affectionate regards

to Lady Keston
& Belive me

Yours truly

Wm Pitt Rivers

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting in cursive script, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]