

Dieppe.

Oct. 1: 1823.

Dear Sir,

Let me last evening receive

Yours of 23rd Sept. from Ham. I am glad to hear you are to be here. I shall be very glad to see you on Saturday & I trust and shall be particularly happy to meet the Bishops. I am glad to hear you are at dinner. I shall be very glad to see you joining Mr. Sinclair without loss of time

I think your journey will be all preparing till

after 12 as he is the earliest day I can name to dine at Ham.

I don't think most fortunately our Stomach Bishop as he appears to me not exactly a Quaker ought to be. We have been highly favoured by the news that the Dutch ship is now safe in the company of her brother and kinship. They last regard to the Countess and her children.

Yours truly
J. Williams
