

I have not much news to write at present.
 I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I am setting out next Thursday for the West and not returning for ten days and having my letter on the subject of your travelling to this place as late as ever. I am therefore to keep my pen to recommend you to come by Frankfurt and not by Holland. There is by Ben there is a very good way in the summer journey and in the winter is a good deal longer in Hannover and I believe difficult to be had. but the great Snow is close in Hannover and the best in the winter and I am sure if you will always observe it it will be wanted to be a good bedroom tree dressing room and a sitting room for Lady Mary's chamber and your own will be with several other want no more:

I cannot sufficiently thank you and the Countess for your attention and kindness to my daughter Mary: my best thanks and most hearty wishes and compliments attend Lady Mary: and are most affectionately and particularly to her and let her I will write if I can before I leave Maner next Monday: otherwise she cannot hear from me till my return from the West which is about about ten days.

I hope and believe my residence here will be
 - more but in the course of another month I shall be a better judge: the house is elegant and com-fortable: the Dutchess likes it and the place:

she is very well and I believe very happy: she has gained all hearts in England and is deservedly becoming every more and more popular here: the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are ex-pected today: a divine and never be lieve me.

My Dear Lord,

I am sincerely

Yours
