My Dear Madam,

Am much obliged to both the Duke and myself for receiving your kindship and Lady Mayo here get much gratified the idea of the Countess coming here before her sister returns into Devonshire; I therefore invite these few lines to enquire when you intend visiting us and Lady Correll are desirous of being here with your kindship and Lady Mayo and it is their present intention otherwise to go to town next Monday and remain with Lord Glasgow till the next

- say Saturday: but they will put off this par-
- ty to meet your Lordship provide the sun
- tips and yourself intend coming here next Mon-
- day: perhaps the weather is a little im-
- prov'd yet better do for joining us the plea-
- sure of your company till at least we can see the sea and the ground not covered with snow.

The Dutchess writes with me increasing her wish towards yourself and the Countess and our believe me,

Yours sincerely
A. Wharton
