

Bishop's House.
 August 10: 1821.
 Late at Night.

My Dear Lord,
 Yours of 5th instant has on every account given me great satisfaction. I rejoice the jail at Ipswich is to be enlarged and the quantity of prizes are ten-times more. Your Lordship's sagacity and thoroughness in business, will I shall your projects may succeed especially where the manufacture is concerned.

I am broken hearted on the subject of the West India and must be gone with it he having common sense left. But I will by your usual mild & temperate moderation of the subject and the tone of treatment so properly taken up with me - and to be little on the subject of which we are at length in the good and direct road to being understood & in a let, in your words, the letter being down. The day however has been most abundant and we will receive equally favorable weather to secure the abundance of corn the English by his virtues.

The Dutchess unite to me sincerely and kindly in every good wish towards yourself and the family. They to be particularly remembered to Lady Grey. God bless you both and ever believe me,

My Dear Lord,

Yours unalterably

J. D.

Her Royal Highness
The Duke of Cleveland
