Sunday Afternoon.

Dear Eliza, I could not answer yours of Thursday till today: I hope and believe I shall be with you all to dinner this day evening:
I shall be ready to accompany you to Lady Compton's when at home: but without a Chapron
I never will allow your going out when I am absent: I have heard from Mr. G. just now and written to him: I am sorry for the death of poor Seymour: remember me most kindly and particularly to every body at Bury: I believe you and your remain.

Dear Eliza,
Your most affectionate Father
Wm Pitt Rivers
