Dear Uncle

I wish much you would call on me a little after Ten tomorrow morning if convenient that we may talk over what is best to be done; I should have sent sooner this Evening but heard you was in Town, and I wrote to you there, & my servant was sent from thence to Gunbury, but you was already return'd to Windsor believe me ever
