

Should follow 118

H. H. to Duke of Cumberland

June 30 1765

115

Dear Madam

I am sorry you were not able to come this Evening, & cannot help expressing my surprise that any Man will give credit to any false insinuations that have their birth from nothing but a Devils lips
I shall be glad to see you at seven tomorrow Evening at Richmond

I remain

Dear Madam

Queens House

^m
25th June 1765

Your most affectionate

Nephew

George J.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]