My Dear Lord, I feel most strongly your very warm feelings for me in this occasion & cannot express too much how I should be grieved if Mr. Yorke cannot be prevailed on I am charmed with your letter to him which I beg may be instantly sent to him & that you will as early as possible acquaint me whether it has not moved him the enclosed are all that I have just received from the D. of Cumberland & my answer both of which beg to have back
