

Edw. Eymont
Turnham Green July 9th
A. N. 1765.

150

Sire

Having this moment rec<sup>d</sup> the enclosed from Mr. Yorke, I have presumed to send it to your Majesty, as the delay of one Hour in matter of Information at this Crisis may be of y<sup>r</sup>. utmost Importance.

Mr. Oswald is now with me, and I have the Pleasure to assure your Majesty that no Man living can Express himself more, (as your Majesty could wish your most faithful Servants to do) determined to support the Plan w<sup>ch</sup> your Affairs oblige you to pursue. - Nor do I think any Man to be more depended upon for acting a proper, and an honest part at this Conjunction.

I am instantly going to Town to see Mr. Yorke & Mr. Elliot, and will certainly take the Liberty of sending y<sup>r</sup>. Majesty a faithful Account this Evening, of all that may this Day occur worthy of y<sup>r</sup>. Majesty's Attention

I am

Sire

with inviolable Truth and the most sincere & respectful Attachment

y<sup>r</sup>. Majesty's most dutyfull Subject & Servant

Eymont

Turnham Green -
Tuesday 9th July 1765
40 min past 10. a. m.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is mirrored and appears to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.]