My Dear Lord I thank you for your attention in sending Mr. Yorke's letter to me; I desire you will by every possible means get him to acquiesce & drop that you think a Patent of Precedence above an Attorney General would be a means of healing every thing even to the most & chaste mind besides that he ought to feel for my situation & lend himself to what the fatality of the made necessary as I set him that example; I have just been to town where seems cooler & to set his brother at liberty to take the part he thinks fitting, I shall now see Charles & therefore hope to gain him, what does not these horrid times make me stoop to; but no more of that; <sup>m</sup> 25 p. 2 M.
