

H. M. Lord Egmont

July 9 1765

155

Recd. 9 July 1765 at 15 min past 11. at night

My Dear Lord, I thank you for your very clear account of Mr. Grotius's conversation which I own a little surprises me as it is very different from what it is pretended he said in his last night but I shall soon now get to the bottom of it; the Chancellor has quite expounded the new Ministers of the impropriety of summoning the P.M.
The D. of Grafton will receive tomorrow the seals of both Provinces that Charles Townshend may have a little more time to get his Brother's leave to accept his language to me (if it can be depend on) was very proper, pray be at the Queen's House by Eleven tomorrow  $\frac{10}{40}$  p. 10 P.M.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on a rectangular piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet.]