

App. to Mary. Hopland. Nov. 14.

of K. seems gentle, moderate, Polite, Religious, very honorable, & compassionate rather timid in conversation, desirous to improve himself; he had retirement till he mounted the Throne, now gives great application to business, <sup>has not too great an attachment to</sup> ~~but~~ Women, Wine, Hunting, or Music ~~but~~ <sup>loves</sup> plays & riding; I never heard of his having any Vice, but endowed with many great qualities.

People tho' <sup>only</sup> from conjecture talk of his being soon marry'd, of Princesses of Denmark, Brunswick & Gotha seem of most probable.

He enclosed of K. speech to Parliament which he ~~had~~ <sup>has</sup> read this morning with great grace, a clear & strong voice to admiration of all who heard him.

Verone to of Hof Brunswick. Lond Nov. 14.

of of Expedition will instantly take place.

of he is just come from of Robert of Vight of K. opening of Parliament, who spoke with greatest dignity & mildness every step he takes binds hearts of his subjects more to him; Je m'entendre la Verité & la Verité prononcant

Caro Præsespor l'organe de ce Jeune Roy, qui paroit né pour combler le bonheur de cette Nation, & pour servir d'appui & de soutien à ses Alliez.

yt. the enclosed a hasty translation of
J. speech said to be a masterpiece in English, it was drawn up by A. Hardwick, alter'd by J. Secretarys of State, & some expressions alter'd by W. H. himself.

Bothmer to Bar. Bernstorff Lond Nov. 14.

yt. all sayd. H. will soon marry J. P. of Gotha; if J. English Nation were to choose J. Queen would be a P. of Denmark.
yt. Expedition to sail this week, most people think for Belle Isle.

Gabitzin to C. Osterman Lond Nov. 14.

Enclosed J. speech without any reflections of his own. J. of Pr. not yet confirm'd; J.
yt. news of J. of Pr. not yet confirm'd; J.
it has greatly assist'd J. filling J. subscriptions of J. 12. million to be rais'd!

Altdorf Lund. Lond. Nov. 14.

yt. he has given J. J. of Pr. Lt. Col. M. J.
& Mr. Munkhausen J. Memorial concerning Hanau.