

H.R.

M. G. Yorke Hague Nov. 14. 1760

M^r. Coxe's Brother brings the News of a Victory to England, of Austrians now confess they were beat; y^t. G. Weiser has drove y^e. Russians from Schwedt who are still in Brandenburgh & Pomerania.

M. G. Yorke Hague Nov. 21. 1760

A messenger left y^e. H. of Pr. y^e. 14th. at Meisen 1000 y^e. day to cross y^e. Elbe & draw towards Dresden, G. Zieher has taken possession of y^e. height of Plauen, y^e. Austrians between Dresden & Gera.

y^e. Russians have taken 10^m. Prisoners, 50. pieces of Cannon & have got above 6^m. deserters, most of which are armed, & voluntarily enlist, y^e. Russians are in Poland, Silesia is clear of its Enemies, & y^e. Regiments of Wurttemberg is gone after y^e. Russians.

y^e. Genl. gone to Golar, ^{may allyd} ~~the~~ thing is in its antient situation; y^e. Genl. Prince at Klein Beckum on y^e. 17th. M^r. de Castries at Grevenach. M^r. de Chabot with y^e. Vanguard at Krudyenberg; yet y^e. season of y^e. Year will prevent any thing of consequence.

M. G. Yorke Hague Nov. 21. priv.

recommends M^r. Stewart y^e. Dep. Conservator of y^e. Scotch Privileges in Zealand, to succeed M^r. W. Lindsay y^e. Conservator lately deceased.

M. G. Yorke Hague Nov. 25. priv.

y^e. y^e. Spaniards have 20^m. pieces towards y^e. Campaign.

M. G. Gotke Lager Nov. 25.

yt. letters from France say M^r. d'Arthen's Squadron was beat almost to pieces y^e. 27th of January last off Belle de France, 5. or 6. of y^e. Ships quite destroy'd, & y^e. rest so deep in y^e. sand, y^t. 'tis scarcely probable they can get off

y^e. R. of Pr. advanced to Trebendorf, & occupied Freiberg, 'tis seem not dangerous with regard to Dresden, some Austrian accounts look as if they meant to retreat to Bohemia.
y^e. Russians gone to y^e. Gistula

J. Ferd. still at Holar y^e. 14th. 'tis imagin'd he will make some attempt of Göttingen; G. Napoleon to put off y^e. French Provisions from starving y^e. Kerl. R. y^e. 22. at Klein Beckum

J. Ferd. Ovelgunne Nov. 13.

yt. He will soon make a last attempt to free Kessle, in two or three days with pass y^e. Alps to try to overturn y^e. Enemy's measures.

Ld. Granby Warburgh Nov. 14.

No probability of y^e. Ally's Army taking so an active part.

Mitchell Glogau Nov. 10th.

yt. he had receiv'd y^e. Account of y^e. R. of Pr but not yet y^e. detail.