Mr. Edwardine Ross
Jamaica on the score of Lady C. Hamilton's pretensions claims
a Royal Provision for which it is implied she wishes the Right to the same. — I have answered briefly that the King cannot pay
the least attention to the statements or the requests —

W. M. Stanley 9th 1871

My dear Mr. Stanley

The enclosed is the letter to Mr. Nathan to accompany the Book. I left with you & I shall be obliged to you to send both. I hope this will put an end to the correspondence as far as I am concerned.

Yours faithfully

J. M. Whittier D. D.
