Kew. Tuesday. 12. a clock.

Pr. George. I am very well pleas'd with Your Letter. Your thoughts about the Governor of Bergen-op-Zoom, are very right, tho such a one ought not to be trusted more. There are great dangers Officers must venture, death is the least, as they may, by one unlucky Step, loose their Reputation, and be a curse to their Country. Gen Cronstrom, this unhappy Governor, had serv'd with great Reputation all last Warr, his head has fail'd him now, and he remains despis'd, by all Europe. That none of You my J<sup>r</sup> Boys, may ever forget Your duty, but always be a Blessing to Y<sup>r</sup> Family, and Country, is the prayer of Y<sup>r</sup> best friend, and Father,

Frederick P.

Mama sends her Blessing to Y<sup>r</sup> all, and I send mine to the two little Boys, and thank Y<sup>r</sup> for Y<sup>r</sup> care of em.
