3rd April 1765.

Lord Halifax -

St James's
Friday April 3rd
1765
four o'clock

Lord Halifax most dutifully acquaints his Majesty, that, upon the Duke of Richmond having again exposted his Drafts, and wished for the opinion of the Judges being taken with respect to the Persons, of whom his Majesty's Royal Faculty doth consist, Lord Halifax moved an amendment by offering the Draft shown this morning to his Majesty, with which his Grace was perfectly satisfied.

The Bill will be read a Third Time ~~on Friday~~ and sent to the House of Commons on Monday.
