x His Majesty will determine whether it may not be proper to appoint the M^r. of Granby to the Chief Command of the Troops tomorrow, with the E. of Widdrington (who offers himself as well as the D. of Richmond for the Service) or any other General officer his Majesty shall please to appoint D. Granby is a very popular Man & might save the lives of these deluded wretches which may be exposed & sacrificed by another Commander equally well intentioned but less a favorite of the People.
