My Dearest Lady Effingham.

Mamma has just order'd me to write to You to let You know that she is to see the Arch Duke and Dutchess this evening in Town she therefore desires that You will come also to night, and as soon as possible after having receiv'd this note to the Queens House that Mamma may give You directions how You are to dress.

I am sincerely happy to hear that your Grand Children go on so well and remain My Dearest Effy

Your affectionate Friend

Augusta Sophia.
