My Dearest Brother

I have received The Queen's Command to thank you with Her Majesty for your letter — It seems we had that as the Order for the change of the Court mourning is already gazetted for next Sunday
The thanks it had better remain so now — therefore on Sunday we shall leave off the D. laced gloves The King has had four hours sleep and is very calm and tranquil this morning.

God bless you my Dearest Brother

Your most truly affectionate & grateful
