Monday Night Dec. 26. 1814

My Dearest Brother

The Queen commands me to return you her thanks with the best love for your kind attention in having informed Her of the Deed being signed between this Court and America. She will write to you tomorrow Monday I trust my Dearest that this may be the Prelude to all that is good both Public and Private

My Sisters desire their Love and Congratulations upon this happy event

May my blessing this earth can give to give my Dearest Brother believe me ever

Your most truly aff. and grateful

Alfred
