My Dear William. I cannot sufficiently express the satisfaction I felt in hearing from Lady Charlotte Finch the great anxiety you are in about the Duke of Gloucester, well does he deserve this Attention of Yours, as he always profess'd a particular Friendship for Your little Person. we are still between hopes and fear no other accounts being come as yet pray God to send us good accounts.
I cannot help adding but that I wish this distressed scene may serve as an example to Yourself, beloved by every Body, by his Amiable Character Every ^{as he is} sincerely wish You to become, and as ~~far~~ a Pleasure is it to know of being belov'd by every body, hated by none, and regretted by all. This I Wish You to feel when You become Old and no Person ~~shall~~^{can} be more proud of hearing You commended than Your most affectionate Mother.

Charlotte

P.S. I send my love to all Your Brothers and Sisters. the King does the same and is very much pleased with Your kind inquiries after the King of France
