Dear Sir,

On my return last night from the Martyr's Guard Guard of 27th Dec: and its various enclosures which I return:

I enquire to find both you and Barton with re-deidally of the proceedings in both the -ly I gave you from all the fair in the tents: my letters contain you by far the most -ly me: I only hope it will last.

Q: must and will come: I per and do not believe that such will suffer from the long drought: there cannot be any harm in it.
-which having written respecting for the dew: I am very sensible the French banks might fail and I have a apprehension of some being purchased for the Treasury: I shall write to Barton in answer to him respecting the same and enter very much into his friend's report with some explanation: adieu and ever believe me,

Yours sincerely
