Dear Daniell,

Your L: 18 has this moment reached me and contains as usual the outlines signed: and as I had occasion to write a few words to Carter on the Farm Journal, I have added my advice which you will send to him: I hope he will be wise enough to follow our admonition and I trust our will continue steady: I have no opinion of Allen but no thing positive can be proved against him: I am afraid Mr. Alexander Home Mr. John Scrimster and Mr. Hauldon act too close for real elegance: but the imposition and impudence of Allen are very serious: watch him minutely: time and patience will bring all round: the state of the Dutchess is the most important point at the present moment and I am happy to add she is in her thirtieth month and advancing Trust in God most generally in her situation: the Heir or terms with intensity with • to Bradley Whis one great Loss: Prish to: Out to make out an exact list of what business she will own mean both for Bartholomew St. James after she has con-mised what I have sent her: I mean her also to send me a list of what is necessary for a decent service for forty people which I mean to have made if possible at Bremenwick: and me a list of what is sent for 1799 and our believe me.

Yours sincerely

William
