

2:21

Hannover.

Dec: 23: 1818.

Dear and faithful Son,

I am exceedingly happy your 2:20 and this morning letter by your 2:21 which is in fact only a continuation of the first: Passage.

- the appearance of your conduct and judgment res-pecting Allen who must and shall be dismissedand never kept: I have in consequence returnednot signed "The list of seeds": they will be processedby the new gardeners: I think the dismissal of

Allen will be a good example to the others: I authorize you and Barton to take the necessary steps with Pally to procure one or more gardeners and I think the best way to get rid of Allen quietly is to tell him "I will give him a character: but this"

"his manners towards his superiors, were complex."

"sent and I therefore discharged him": let Mansel be consulted: Preference of the Park keeper paying the Twenty pounds of the Green to the salaries: the Park and Farm seem to go on well and will all the letter for the dismission of Allen: the list of lines sent from Hammer is correct: I have received the list from Mr. Park and only need to know if what she has done out will complete all she wants: I am now waiting for the drawing of the design from Wolmer to order the Secret Service at Hammer and ever remain

Yours sincerely

J. J. Williams

"

 place.

 scales

 buying series: the matter

 history

 case.

 results

 complete the above.

 the

 massis

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a piece of aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]