

[To Danell, Duke of Clarence's Agent at Bury House].

J. James.
Jan: 23: 1820.

Dear Sir, Whether the Press will suit George and his wife is their affair and not your business: but my son will just and I must the least use in any of the articles being mentioned from Bury House till he means to inhabit the Press which cannot be till his return from Peterborough.

I cannot be a judge of the various articles without seeing them: but they appear to me on paper to be more than is necessary for the size of the house: but you are in possession of the list he made out before he went abroad and I wish I appeared: I do not know what

[To Danell, Duke of Clarence's Agent at Bury House]

Remains by the Italian Jan: his horses and carriages must stand at the Post and not at my stables as George must provide his own baggage.
I enclose you the list which I will examine with you when we meet: tell the others and unbelievers,

Yours sincerely

J. P. Williams

P.S. George cannot have a Clerk nor the Sheriff till I have seen them.

[To Danell, Duke of Clarence's Agent at Bury House].

us out ar
to my sta
agard con:
mine
diver

on the