Bushy House
July 1: 1838.

Dear Sir,

I am to acknowledge

Yours' Most Secret and Confidential and perfectly understand your silence as Mr. A. A. C. had daily reported the state of your beloved Monarch.
Of course I was aware the thing had just as they seen the Prince was and am not surprised much
- no wonder. I am glad the difficulty of speaking is left the last two days and therefore trust in God His Majesty will ultimately do well.
I highly appreciate the constant attendance of Mr. A. A. C. and Mr. P. P. P. and shall unreservedly meet these parts of Mr. A. A. C. which God grant may be favourable. I most heartily and earnestly join with you in Prayers that the Almighty may give me in particular and all His Majesty's loving Subjects the happine and comfort of looking to the poor

- persons Persecution of this very unchristian
- ness.

Ever believe me,

Dear Sir,
Yours truly
William
