

I trust myself daily
to thank you for your kind good wishes
on my natal day as well as for the beautiful washed cushion you
were so good as to send me. It gave me great pleasure & is much
admired by all who
have yet seen it.

I must beg you
to excuse this hurried
note, but having

many letters to answer
them, I can only add
the assurance of my
grateful attachment,
with which I am ever
my dear Sir
yours most
affly
