

Paris Monday Night

Sir

It is not difficult to ascertain the precise day, on which the Sovereign will move from hence - at present the Emperor of Russia's departure stands fixed for the 30th the King's departure will be as nearly as the State of the Post Horses will permit at the same time - As Lord Wellesley Fitzroy will accompany to your Royal Highness all necessary Information, shall not intrude further on your Royal Highness's Time, than to add that the Emperor of Austria most respectfully sends himself Compliments to declare the Prince Regent's Invitation

I am Sir

With the utmost respect

Your Royal Highness

most faithful &

Obedient Servant

For His Royal Highness
The Duke of Clarence

Cartwright

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged, yellowed paper, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]

Paris. Monday night
To Mr. P. R. Thompson

By - 27. May 1914