

To Lady Mayo

Rushy House.

Jan^{ry} 6: 1833.

Dear Madam,

My daughter being gone early this morning to receive the Chrysanth has requested me to answer the letter she writes
- day received from your Ladyship which I do with the sincere pleasure as it gives an oppor- tunity of recalling myself to all the inhabi- tants of Barty Lodge.

The Duke's last Sunday began to mend and has been since then in her chamber. Some ladies still not allowed to go further. She desires her best love & compliments to your Ladyship and Mr. Smith. But this severe weather is against all usual help.

Indeed the house has been for the last ten days a scene of illness, as have most families near us. I do not remember for some time such trying weather. The putrid vapours of the water and the sea air, since your departure and the Smiths from colds. I am sorry my friend the Earl is indisposed. He cannot however be in better hands than those of your excellent self and the truly hospitable papers of Bristol. Remember me most particularly and kindly to Mr. Bayly, say every thing that is most friendly and proper in my name to Dr. Smith. I hope you will be thinking of the Petition in the next Parliament meets. I wish that he the case the Dutchess and myself hope to have for a few days the company

Arrian is an excellent and Dr. Smith and yourself have various correspondents. I hope however -lined to the Earl and Countess of Arrian. They are excellent neighbours. I hope to visit Mr. Wilkin-just too far he is being done not mean of for some Dr. Pitt Rivers is by the river's account in the -line and I am really a friend to the mill in the river.

I think your friend Lady P. will be very much The Earl and Countess of Arrian can be always found with delight and gratitude of the Government I hope your friends and acquaintances at Bristol I receive the Accounts near you, I wish
