Friday Night.

To Duke of Clarence's Agent at Buckingham
House

Dear Sir,

I have this instant send you my tele and am glad the little girls are
- turned safe: let Dasher put up thirty boxes of Port and the same of Sherry for both Audley Square: there is not any need of send-
- ing presents to town: you were quite right in giving them. Stanton have tell me Saturday: the weather is beautiful for hay making: I am tolerably well and certain- ly much better than usually at this time marriage]

of the year: but recollecting the attack has commenced on the twenty sixth of May and has been kept off till the first of July I am not secure of escaping: I hope I shall be able to spend Sunday at Beaby: unless you hear to the contrary let the dog horses be with me at St. James's on that day at half past eleven and ever believe me,

Yours sincerely
A. S.
William
