

Sir H Taylor to Duke of Richmond

36055

London Friday March 27. 1733
12 at night

Private

My dear Lord Duke,

In addition to what I am order'd by the King to write with respect to the Proposition supposed to be contemplated for an Alteration in the Mutiny Act, H. M. has order'd me to call, thro' You, the Attention of His Government to the extreme Embarrassment & Danger which may result from the Adoption, in the present Juncture. — The Alteration must be related to the Naval Mutiny Act, so far as the Officers are concern'd, and it is impossible to calculate what may be the Effect of it upon the

I have not seen the original

[Faint handwritten text at the bottom of the page]

the Sumner and whether these will not report also to be returned from the exercise of the Court & Discretion vested in their Officers. — This additional Objection has occurred to A. M. since the Dispatch of my Letter & forms, in the Opinion a strong ground for not trying hazardous experiments, in reference to Clamorous Propagation.

Believe me to

Sincerely

Dear Sir

The Duke of Richmond &c

Sir H Taylor to Duke of Richmond

also thence partly my

, in

11.9.

9

Copy

To the Duke of Devonshire

March 20. 1783

Remarks on the effect which might be produced in the Moral Science of the Profanes education in the Mastery some to be learned with great ease -