

and I have been obliged to request ² Lord Thurstleton to get some ^{to} see to it for me out of in-stant at the Appeals in the Lords.

I cannot sufficiently express to you my grati-tude for this unexpected mark of kind-ness from the King's Grace because I never thought of putting the best of them under a momentary difficulty in my own access to.

Highly and most highly do I appreciate this fresh mark of the King's goodness and con-sideration towards myself and I must thank you for the chief interest you have taken in bringing my concerns thus favourably before the King.

I shall however without loss of time make known to Barton the King's opinion, being time and desire this valuable and Opinion of mine to be kept confidentially with you my debts and expediture that you both will be able to give me some excellent method of managing my concerns for the future.

When I first recd your letter I did not cor-rectly make out the King's bounty; but on examining your I am most forcibly struck with the Power and Parole. I really want to express my feelings and again that seem -ing from the King's Parole is an addition -ary of the affection of the King which will
