

Half past ten.
Wednesday evening.

Dear Brother,

Were this moment safe arrived in Europe after the pleasant & easy journey over the finest country in the world. Every where we had the good & smiles of the folks: but more particularly at Rouen & St. George Young Bonaparte: he would not have been much pleased at our reception: tomorrow at eight we move off for Bay--nne the purpose here, I shall again write. As the day you depart of separating; from you the best of love & kind friends in new ones. I sincerely wish it may be a war.

Adieu for I am very much tired. I will believe me

Yours sincerely,

J. H. Mackintosh

W. R. W. Mackintosh
at Glasgow