Handwritten text on aged, yellowed paper, possibly a ledger or account book. The text is written in cursive and is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. A vertical line runs down the center of the page, and there are several horizontal lines. A word, possibly "Bones", is written vertically in the center. There are some dark stains on the left side of the page.
